

VENABLES OAK

WINDOWS

Suitable for both new build and for restoration projects, Venables Oak can produce custom made windows as well as holding a range of stock designs.

All Venables Oak windows are made from top quality materials and to the highest specification, meeting all glass and window regulations including toughened glass.

The company can give advice on design and ironmongery, guiding the customer on the best number of casements or glazing bars for the overall look of the property. This includes advice on window design for historic and period properties and Venables Oak can reproduce any style that may be required.
